

MARKET ENTRY STRATEGY — Cultural Experiences Venture

SELECTED OPPORTUNITY

Craft & Textile Arts — India's most commercially scalable cultural cluster, anchored in 3,000+ GI-tagged crafts: block printing, pottery, weaving, Madhubani and indigo dyeing. Artisan hubs in Jaipur, Varanasi, Kutch.

- Highest score across demand, scalability, talent and commerciality
- Visually rich — Instagram-native with high organic reach
- Physical product extension into D2C merchandise and craft kits
- No national branded competitor — clear first-mover advantage

BUSINESS MODEL

'Experience → Learn → Own' Hybrid Flywheel

- Experience — Workshops, studio sessions, heritage walks, corporate offsites (Rs.500–1,00,000)
- Learn — Online courses, certifications, school and corporate L&D (Rs.299–999/month)
- Own — Artist merchandise, craft kits (D2C), home décor (Rs.800–50,000)

Each layer feeds the next. Experience drives acquisition, learning drives retention, and products deliver recurring monetization.

TARGET CUSTOMERS

Segment	Spend / Visit
Urban Millennials (Primary)	Rs.2,000–10,000
Corporate HR & L&D (B2B)	Rs.50K–5L/event
Premium Travelers / HNIs	Rs.5,000–1,00,000
Gen Z (Growth)	Rs.500–2,500

GO-TO-MARKET STRATEGY

Positioning: "Where India's living traditions become your personal story" — premium participatory studio between mass craft fairs and exclusive heritage retreats.

- Micro-influencer partnerships — lifestyle, travel and art creators
- Experiential pop-ups at malls, art festivals and corporate campuses
- Strategic tie-ups: luxury hotels, Airbnb Experiences, IRCTC tourism
- Community building: workshop alumni networks and referral programs
- SEO content: 'Learn block printing in Delhi'-type long-tail capture
